At Writing Wrongs 2017, participating college students will reveal the struggles of those in our communities who are trying to become U.S. citizens. By providing an opportunity for these students, your tax-deductible donation supports community journalism and constructive dialogue about sensitive and sometimes controversial issues that affect all of us. Donations of any amount are accepted and welcomed.

This completed form can be mailed with your check to the address above. Checks should be made payable to Humanitarian Social Innovations or HSI. You may also make a secure online donation at <http://bit.ly/WWHSI516>.
